

*Nancy Anne Underwood
Photography Scholarship
$4,256*

Nancy Anne Underwood graduated from Webster University in 1990 from the School of Communications. In 1993, her growing career in photography ended when she was tragically killed in a car accident. Her husband, David Underwood '88, established the Nancy Anne Underwood Scholarship Fund to honor her memory and her love of photography.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Applicant must be a full-time Webster University student who will be of junior or senior status in the 2022-2023 academic year, working towards a Bachelor of Arts in Photography in the School of Communications.
- All applicants must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.2 or higher.
- All applicants must have a FAFSA on file in Webster's financial aid office and be eligible to receive financial aid.

Application Requirements:

- A printed portfolio consisting of ten of your best photographs. (A portfolio on disk is not acceptable for this purpose.) All types of photographic work will be accepted for consideration. A panel of outside judges selected by the University will review your work. The panel will consist of two to three professional photographers.
- A personal statement addressing why you have chosen photography as your future career. What are your short-term and long-term objectives? The statement should be a typed, double-spaced essay of at least 150 words.

APPLICATION, PORTFOLIO, AND PERSONAL STATEMENT
